Frequently Asked Questions

Welcome to your go-to guide for all things related to NACEP Membership. Whether you're joining, renewing, or just exploring, we've got answers!

What are the benefits of NACEP membership?
As the nation's only membership organization dedicated to concurrent and dual enrollment partnerships, NACEP brings institutions together to foster collaboration, professional growth, program development, research, and advocacy.

NACEP Members receive:

- Access to a national network of peers
- Professional development and training
- Research, resources, and advocacy tools
- Exclusive members-only benefits and discounts

Do I need to be an accredited institution to join?
No. NACEP accreditation is not required to become a member.

Who is eligible for membership?
ANYONE! NACEP Membership is open to any institution or organization involved in dual enrollment, including:

- K-12 districts
- Colleges and universities
- State agencies
- Nonprofits and education-focused organizations

How long does membership last?
Membership runs on a calendar year: January 1 – December 31.

When does my membership become active?

- Credit card: Immediately after payment
- Check payment: Once the check is received and processed

Do I need to be a member to attend NACEP events?
No, but members receive discounted rates and access to exclusive sessions and content.

What is the institutional account? What is its purpose?
The institutional account is a shared account for your organization. This account should be used to:

- Renew membership for your institution
- Register multiple employees for events
- Add sub-members so colleagues can access all NACEP membership benefits

Who is responsible for the institutional account credentials?
The primary contact will create the credentials when joining or renewing the membership. They can share it with others on the team.

What should I do if I forgot my institutional account login?
Check with your institution's primary contact to see if they have the login credentials. If needed, reach out to Aspin Sanchez, asanchez@nacep.org for assistance.

Note: You cannot reset institutional account credentials on the website — only individual accounts have that option

I can't select a membership category when logging in. Why?
You're likely logged into an individual (not institutional) account. Use your institution's primary email to access full membership features.

What is my Region or Territory? NACEP's five regions are based on your state's institution's location.

- Region 1: CT, DC, DE, MA, MD, ME, NC, NH, NJ, NY, PA, RI, VA, VT, WV
- Region 2: AL, FL, GA, IN, KY, MI, MS, OH, SC, TN
- Region 3: AR, IL, LA, MO, OK, TX
- Region 4: IA, KS, ND, NE, MN, MT, SD, WI, WY
- Region 5: AK, AZ, CA, CO, HI, ID, NM, NV, OR, UT, WA

How do I get an invoice?
Fill out the membership form and choose "Pay Later" during checkout. An invoice will be emailed to your Primary Contact.

What is a Primary Contact?
The Primary Contact is the person who:

- Manages your institution's NACEP account
- Handles membership renewal and payments
- Adds or removes sub-members

- Can register teams for events
- Receives essential NACEP communications

Tip: The Primary Contact should not unsubscribe from NACEP emails. Keep your Primary Contact info up to date.

What is a Sub-Member?
Sub-Members are individuals connected to an institutional account • who receive:

- Their own NACEP login
- Full member benefits
- Access to events, listserv, and members-only content
- Management by the Primary Contact

How do I add Sub-Members?
Follow this video

- Log into the institutional account
- Go to "Membership"
- Click "Manage Sub-Members" to add or remove individuals

I got a new job. What should I do?
Congrats! Email your new contact details to Aspin Sanchez, asanchez@nacep.org so we can update your records.

My account says “inactive,” but my institution is active. Why?
You may not be listed as a Sub-Member. Contact your Primary Contact to be added.

How can I check if my institution is already a member?
Use the Membership Directory to search for your organization.

Who can I contact for help with login issues or account management?Contact Aspin Sanchez, asanchez@nacep.org.
